Tony Attwood

is well known for sharing his extensive knowledge of Asperger Syndrome. He has a private practice in Brisbane and is an adjunct Professor at Griffith University in Queensland.
Tony has written many papers and two best selling books on Asperger Syndrome. He also spends a large amount of time traveling nationally and internationally to present workshops and papers. His presentations are informative and empowering.

"From my clinical experience I consider that children and adults with Asperger Syndrome have a different , not defective, way of thinking,"

Feedback on Online Learning

*"I am really amazed on how much i have learned and the way it is presented it does not make it boring.
I find it easier on line because there are no other noises or distractions while i am trying to listen. I am able to concentrate so much more."* Early Learning Childhood Educator

*"Myself and 10 Special Needs Education Assistants (SNEAs), engaged in the PL together. I personally got goosebumps with some of the information provided.
We are a mainstream school with a high number of Students with Additional Needs (SWANs). Primary School Teacher

*"Could you please pass on my thanks to Sue for amazing course. As an EA and mum to a child with autism I took so much away with this course, not only for myself, my child and the students I work with but to share with family and teachers. It is the first course I have done that really gets people to reflect on themselves first and then use it as a reflection tool when exploring the complexities of ASD." Parent
